Term 4, Number 1
Wednesday 16th October 2019

Achieve and Succeed Me Whai, kia angitū

Congratulations to our Students of the Week, (from the last week of term 3) for displaying the school habits and values as follows:

Sophie Valentine for All the Argyll East Habits and Values – You have made a great start to school and are settling into our class well! You have been making friends and learning all about school life. We love having you in Ruma Tahī!

Ella Nicholson for All the Argyll East Habits and Values – You have had a fantastic term of learning, leadership and growth. You have embraced all areas of learning - pushing yourself to do your best. You always offer to help others and lead by example. You are growing into a thoughtful and kind young lady who others enjoy being around. Keep up the positive attitude, Ella!

Pariare Mitchell for Managing Self and Learning – You got stuck into your google slide show about Search and Rescue when you were the only group member there. You had listened to what you needed to do, completed the tasks correctly by thinking hard and using your time effectively. These are great skills to use in all curriculum areas (and jobs at home too!) Ka pai.

Lachlan Foley for All the Argyll East Habits and Values – This award goes to you for the effort you give at school. We have been talking about taking risks in our class this week and you always stand out as someone who gives 100% even if it's something you have never done before. I like how you get along with everyone and try your very best. You have a great sense of humour and we all enjoy having you in Ruma Rua. Keep it up Lachlan!

Tēnā koutou kātoa,
Hi everyone,

Welcome back to a wet and soggy first week of term 4! It was nice to see everyone's happy faces on Monday morning - all eager to share their holiday news. Welcome to our new students, Phoenix, Alanna and Indie and to Lou White who will be teaching for two days a week in Ruma Toru. We hope you all enjoy your time at AES.

We're off to a busy start with our "Navigating the Journey" programme kicking in for all year levels. It will probably take 10 days over 2-3 weeks to complete all of the sessions.

Thanks to families who came along to the student sharing and sexuality education information evening in the last week of term three. The children really enjoyed showing you their latest and greatest and it was fun for them to see their parents playing Kahoot. We hope you enjoyed it too.

Next Tuesday is Pet Day and we really hope the sun will be shining! The theme is "Rugby World Cup" and students are invited to make a rugby food plate or creation that will be judged in class groups. Please see the programme below in this newsletter. We have also shared it via Seesaw, and we will send it via email. Postponement date is Tuesday 29th October.

Thank you to those parents who have volunteered to run an activity on the day - we know that our children love participating in these Agrikid type activities. Thanks also to those who have agreed to be judges this year - it is always a difficult task choosing between all of those well-loved pets!

Earlier this week I sent home some information about my new role as Kāhui Ako Lead Principal. I have also attached it to the newsletter today. Thank you for your good wishes, I appreciate your support.

Athletics is planned for week 4, Monday 4th November. This involves Argyll East, Sherwood and Tikokino schools. It will be held on the CHB College field. As usual, we need some helpers to run some of the activities with us. Please complete the attached slip and return to school if you are able to lend a hand. We will send out more details in the coming weeks.

Hot lunches have finished for the year and hats, when the sun finally shines, are required during term four and term one.

Have a great week.

Principal

PRINCIPAL'S AWARD

To Lizzie Janson for Managing Self and Relating to Others

We really see you growing up this term in the way that you manage yourself. You have become more resilient and you think carefully about how you do things. You have made good progress in your learning, well done. We love the way that you are kind to others, and we notice your beautiful manners. Keep shining Lizzie!
